RIM Ltd. sells its smartphone products in this district and throughout the United States.

3. Defendant RIM Corp. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in Irving, Texas. On information and belief, RIM Corp. is a wholly owned subsidiary of RIM Ltd. and serves as a representative of RIM Ltd. for purposes of conducting business in the United States, including but not limited to offering to sell, selling and marketing in the United States smartphones including the Pearl 8100 series, the Pearl Flip 8200 series, the 8800 series, the Curve 8900 model, the Curve 8300 series, the Curve 8500 series, the Bold 9000 model, the Storm 9530 model, the Storm II 9550 model, the Tour 9630 model, the Curve 9300 series, the Pearl 9100 model, the Style 9670 model, the Bold 9700 model, the Bold 9650 model, the Torch 9800 model and the Bold 9780 model. RIM Corp. sells smartphone products in this district and throughout the United States.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This action arises under the patent laws of the United States. MMI asserts claims for patent infringement under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271 and 281.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338.

6. RIM Ltd. and RIM Corp. transact business in this district and are subject to personal jurisdiction and venue in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(c) and (d).

SUMMARY OF CLAIMS

7. This is a patent infringement action brought by MMI against Defendants for Defendants' infringement of MMI's patents.

8. MMI owns all of the patents-in-suit and offers non-exclusive licenses under the MMI patents.

9. Defendants are infringing the patents-in-suit by, among other things, making, importing, using, offering to sell and/or selling in the United States and in this judicial district Defendants' smartphone products, which employ MMI patented technology.

10. In making, importing, using, offering to sell and/or selling the infringing products, providing customers with instructions about the use of such products and continuing such acts, Defendants knew or should have known the products would be used in an infringing manner. Defendants intended to encourage this infringement and continue to do so.

WHEREFORE, MMI prays for judgment and seeks relief against RIM Ltd. and RIM Corp. as follows:

(a) That the Court find and declare that Defendants are infringing each of the patents-in-suit in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271;

(b) That the Court find and declare that this infringement was and continues to be willful;

(c) That the Court issue a permanent injunction against further infringement of the patents-in-suit pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283;

(d) That the Court award Plaintiff damages adequate to compensate for the infringement of the patents-in-suit in an amount to be determined at trial, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court; all of those damages to be enhanced in an amount up to treble

the amount of compensatory damages as this Court finds proper, for example, due to Defendants' willful infringement, as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 284;

(e) That the Court find and declare this to be an exceptional case entitling Plaintiff to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285; and

(f) That the Court grant Plaintiff such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
